AMPS Entrepreneurship and Leadership Institute Announces Aymet Chaples as Executive Director

Rincon, Puerto Rico – May 30, 2024 – The AMPS Entrepreneurship and Leadership Institute is pleased to formally announce Aymet Chaples as its Executive Director, coinciding with our Entrepreneurial Retreat in Rincon, Puerto Rico.

With over 25 years of leadership experience in the non-profit and education sectors, specializing in program development, grant acquisition, and strategic leadership, Aymet's previous roles have included Executive Director, VP of Operations, and COO, where she managed substantial budgets and led significant organizational growth.

James Amps, President and Founder of the AMPS Institute, stated: "Aymet is a highly experienced executive who has dedicated her career to the non-profit industry and social service. We're thrilled to have her expertise guiding the institute as we continue to empower and cultivate young entrepreneurs and leaders."

Aymet has demonstrated a profound ability to enhance organizational effectiveness and community impact throughout her career. Her strategic vision and deep understanding of organizational dynamics are expected to drive significant advancements in the Institute's focus on entrepreneurship education and leadership development.

Mission of the AMPS Institute: Under Aymet's leadership, the Institute aims to expand its impact and reach, creating transformative educational experiences that align with our mission to equip youth with the knowledge needed to successfully compete in a free-market system through innovative leadership techniques and real-world entrepreneurial experiences.

The AMPS Institute looks forward to Aymet's leadership in advancing our mission to nurture and develop the next generation of leaders and innovators.
